ATTENTION: The Soil Science Society of America (SSSA) Statement on ARPACS

The Soil Science Society of America (SSSA) has assumed certification for CPSS and CPSC through ARCPACS, effective November 2003. SSSA has requested the following statement be displayed on the USCSSA web site:

"The Soil Science Society of America (SSSA) is responsible for certification of professional soil scientists through the ARCPACS program. If you have suggestions for ways that SSSA can promote certification or licensing of soil scientists, or help soil scientists that are now certified or licensed, please contact Dr. Tom Sims, President of SSSA, jtsims@udel.edu".
